This Agreement contains the terms and conditions for the use of Cochise Credit Union’s mobile remote deposit capture services that Cochise Credit Union or its partners may provide to you (“you,” or “User”). Other agreements you have entered into with Cochise Credit Union, including the Important Account Information for Our Members, including Terms and Conditions, Electronic Funds Transfers, Funds Availability and Truth-In Savings agreements and disclosures governing your Cochise Credit Union account, are incorporated by reference and made a part of this Agreement.

1. Service. The remote deposit capture services (“Services”) are designed to allow you to make deposits to your checking, savings, or money market savings accounts from remote locations by photographing checks and delivering the images and associated deposit information to Cochise Credit Union or Cochise Credit Union’s designated processor. To use the Services, you must download and install a third-party software application (the “Software”) on your Mobile Device.

You are solely responsible for selecting your Mobile Device and making sure that you know how to properly use your Mobile Device and the Mobile Banking Services. The Credit Union may change or upgrade the Mobile Banking Service from time to time that could require a change or upgrade in your Mobile Device or the Software. You are solely responsible for any required upgrade to your Mobile Device or the Software and any losses caused by your failure to properly use and maintain your Mobile Device.

Before sending the electronic image to the Credit Union, you agree to review the image for clarity and accuracy. You understand and acknowledge that images that are not clear cannot be processed by the Credit Union or may be processed inaccurately. Even if you are notified that an image has been received, that notification does not mean that the image has been accepted or that it contains no errors. The Credit Union reserves the right to reject any image. You are solely responsible for the image and information you transmit. You understand and agree that any amount credited to your account based on the images sent by you for deposit is a provisional credit and you are responsible for any loss, late fees or other service charges resulting from rejection of the image by the Credit Union.

The Credit Union may impose limits on the number or amount of deposits that you can transmit using this Service or other policies and procedures regarding access to and use of this Service. The Credit Union reserves the right to change those limits or any policies or procedures at any time.

2. Member Eligibility. After you sign up for Mobile Banking, you may apply for Remote Deposit. You understand that you must be a Credit Union member for at least 90 days and be a member in good standing to be eligible to enroll in Remote Deposit. Prior to capturing the image of the check, you agree to endorse the back of the original check. The endorsement must include your signature as your name appears on the check and the following information: “For Cochise Credit Union Remote Deposit Only” followed by the account number to which the check is being deposited. Endorsements that do not contain this information as stated may be rejected. Specifically, the image must include identification of the drawer and the paying bank that is preprinted on the check including complete and accurate bank account numbers at the bottom of the check.
